

Reverend Raphael Warnock is seeking a Content Creator to join his growing campaign digital team. This jack-of-all-trades role will work with the Digital Director and other digital team members to create content that aligns with the Reverend's brand and message. They'll lead on everything from recording video, taking photos, making graphics, and creating other forms of digital media.

An ideal candidate will be an eager and organized self-starter with a positive attitude and a sense of humor. They should have a passion for Democratic politics, and be ready to bring big ideas to the table. They must be able to learn on their feet and juggle multiple projects on tight timelines.

This role will often be on the road capturing content at campaign events and working closely with members from other departments. Candidates must be flexible with a keen eye for social media opportunities.

Responsibilities

- Work with our Social Media Manager to plan and execute a goal-oriented content calendar
- Develop content for digital platforms, including social media, SMS, email, ads, and more
- Create digital content that can achieve a number of different goals including fundraising, generating volunteers, persuading voters and more
- Travel on the road with the Senator to capture content at events
- Work with our digital and communications teams to brainstorm and execute new ideas

Qualifications

- Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite
- Experience in video production, photography, animation, and/or general internet culture
- Knowledgeable in all social media platforms including twitter, facebook, instagram, tiktok
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment, prioritize tasks, and adapt quickly to changing political environments
- Strong discretion and commitment to a dynamic team environment
- Willingness to work long and irregular campaign hours, including nights and weekends

This role will be based in Atlanta but can start remotely immediately. Candidates from non-traditional backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Georgia ties are preferred but not required. Salary will be commensurate with experience.
